

What is Christianity? video resource

Instructions

Christianity Explored Ministries is very pleased to make available the What is Christianity? video for wider use. Please follow this guidance to make the most of this resource.

Please DO ... Make sure you are using the correct video

There are copies of the video around the Internet which may be removed. The 'official' video can be found here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8lJa-PcEGE4>

Please DO... Include the transcript of the video

To aid with accessibility, it is best practice to include a transcript along with video content. This has been made available in a separate document included in this pack.

Please DO ... Include some still images from the video

A number of high-resolution images have been included in this pack, which have been made available for use in relation to this video and its content.

Please DO... Include a credit and link to christianityexplored.org

Please credit Christianity Explored Ministries as the owners of the content, including a link to the evangelistic website at <https://christianityexplored.org>:

Content provided by Christianity Explored Ministries. Find answers to challenging questions and hear how others have explored Christianity at christianityexplored.org

Please DON'T... Copy or upload the video

The video is under copyright and is not available for duplication or publication.